VISION AND VALUES

CLIENT COMMENTS

"In the spirit of the Olympics, Apollo Roofing gets the gold medal hands down. I had the roof replaced on an office building that runs essentially 24/7 and 98% of the tenants had no idea what was going on as the reroofing program was expertly handled by Robert Hargreaves and his super staff.

Last but not least, Apollo is a highly ethical company. Apollo pointed out and addressed issues that I would never have realized needed attention and which they provided at no additional cost. Apollo is committed to installing a quality roof within budget constraints. Their bid was the most competitive out of several bids, including national roofing firms."

"Starting with the maintenance and repair staff, your crew has always responded in a timely manner and there has not been one instance where they have had to return to repair the same leak twice. As an offsite asset manager, I know that when I report a roof leak Apollo will inspect the problem and work with the tenant in a professional manner."

W. S., Asset Manager
Weaver & Woodbery

"In the twenty years, I have been a Property Manager; I can honestly say I have never received the quality of service they provide. Apollo is always the first call I make for all of my roofing needs. I know I share this high opinion with many of my C.B. Richard Ellis counterparts in that we are confident we will always receive the very best service at a very competitive price."

L.N., Senior Property Manager
C.B. Richard Ellis

"Planned Maintenance has saved many times more money than I have spent. This is especially true when it's time for an asset to be sold. The roof shows well, the tenants have no complaints and the due diligence people are not going to examine it with a microscope if there are no overt signs of neglect. Apollo's program is designed to preserve and protect the roof and not just an attempt to create fill-in work as some roofers approach it. The cost is minimal and the benefits are maximal."
